COSSACKS DRIVE JAPANESE BACK.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 5 .- War news of an encouraging sort was received here to-day. The despatch was from Mukden, dated Oct. 3, and says:

"At dawn of Oct. 1 a squadron of Japanese cavalry twice attempted to break through the line of advance posts of Cossacks of the Guard in the district between Khuankhuandia and Fengtiapu. Both attempts were unsuccessful. Two somias of our cavalry reinforced the advance posts and the Japanese dispersed.

Toward noon the same day one battalion of the Japanese advance guard. with two or three squadrons of cavalry, renewed the offensive movement against a regiment of Cossacks. JAPS LOST 10,000 MEN IN THREE DAYS' FIGHT.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. &-Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel, commander of the Russian military forces at Port Arthur, says the Japanese losses were 10,000 during the attacks on Port Arthur, from Sep:

the attacks on Port Arthur, from Sept. 19 to Sept. 22. He reports that no incident occurred from Sept. 23 to Sept. 30, excepting outpost skirmishing. Gen. Stoessel adds that practically nothing remained of the waterworks redoubts when the surviving Russians eyacuated them.

The last Japanese attack to which Gen. Stoessel refers was on a hill called High Mountain. He gives instances of the heroism of the defenders, especially the case of a lieutenant who threw have bombs into the Japanese trenches, causing a panic. Col. Irman, chief of the Port Arthur artillery, is praised for the magnificent dispositions of the guns.

DID JAPS TIE COREANS ON THE FIRING LINE?

POSSIET BAY, Russian Manchuria. Oct. 5 .- The Japanese Minister at Scoul has demanded that every town in Corea furnish a contingent of forty to sixty men for the army now being crganized, but the Emperor of Corea refused to do so. The Japanese, rone the less, continue to recruit Corears under the pretense of employing them as coolles. It is reported that they recruited 600 men at Ping Yang, dressed them in uniforms, sent them to Manchuris, and placed them in the fron-line, fastened to posts, until nearly all of them were killed. The Russians found only one man alive.

Particular Attention Is Called to This Greatest Display of Art Pottery and Bric-a-Brac.

This collection forms a noteworthy part of our China and Glassware stocks—and they are indeed noteworthy stocks. If you could combine the China and Glassware stocks of all other department stores in Naw York City you would still have a quantity much smaller than we have on display and accessible for selling. The arts of all nations as illus. trated in China, Glass and Pottery are shown in such profusion that an inspection of them at once becomes a liberal education. Collectors and lovers of ceramic art find here a greater variety than can be seen in months of travel.

ROYAL BERLIN

From the Royal Berlin Potteries are shown their marvellous crystallized painted vases and the like; also complete lines of table services, which we sell by the set or single, just as we sell scores of "Open Stock" patterns in English, French, Austrian and Domestic wares. This en our patrons to make up sets to suit their individual requirements, and to replace broken pieces at any time. Worthy of Special Attention is the Collection of Bavarian, Silesian, Saxon and Hungarian Wares and the splendid assortment of Crown Derby Vases in the rich colorings and gildings for which the Crown Derby Pottery is famous.

ITALIAN ART
Italian Marble Statuary and Pedestals; a fine line of Barbotine Vases and Baskets with fruits in has relief; and the Salviati Glass and Ginori Vases—at half the prices asked by exclusive dealers. As this ware is rapidly advancing in price it will be of importance to collectors to know that we are offering some extraordinary hargains in a choice lot of these enamels on cop-

In a newspaper announcement we can skim these matchless stocks at the best. Inspecting them leisurely will repay any lover of fine wares. Apart from the other potteries represented, we draw supplies from our own potteries, decorating shops and glass-cutting factories, among them:—A Glassware Factory at Steinschonau, Bohemia; Pottery at Rudolstadt, Thuringia; a Porcelain Decorating Plant at Carlsbad, Bohemia; a China Decorating Plant at Limoges, France; a large Cut Glass Factory in New York City, in addition to the one we operate on the premises in connec with a China Decorating Shop. Visitors are invited to visit these two industries located on the 8th Floor of the store building. Seeing the processes gives you a much better idea of values and makes you a more capable buyer—makes you understand clearly why no other store in New York City can match our low prices for world-famous ware.

Oriental Rugs-The Sale.

It is good news to lovers of these oddly beautiful floor wears from the Orient that we have established such a perfect system of gathering and distributing them. The wisdom of engaging a resident buyer in the Far East and bringing the Rugs down to a commercial basis has been evidenced by the unparalleled selling attending this Autumn trade event. Until other dealers establish a like system and adopt the rigid cash method that has made Macv's you must not expect like values at any other store.
